

ESSAY QUESTIONS ON "THE THIRD SIDE"

Write one essay answering one of these questions

1. What is the Third Side, what is its function, in what various contexts is it discussed in this book, and why does the author have so much confidence in it as a way of resolving conflict?
2. Describe why the coexistence which prevailed in the Hunter/Gatherer era turned into coercion with the rise of civilization and tell what the consequences of this change were and what you think of the consequences.
3. Why does the author think going back to earlier ways of relating and solving conflict will happen in our times?
4. Describe several of the best ways to prevent conflict and give examples you have seen of people engaged in preventing conflict.
5. Describe several of the best ways to resolve conflict and give examples you have seen of people engaged in resolving conflict.
6. Describe several ways to contain conflict and give examples you have seen of people engaged in containing conflict.
7. Write an essay describing what specific topic you found most interesting in this book and why.