

CURRICULUM VITAE

EDUCATION

Master of Arts, Duke University

Thesis Topic: "Disease and Medical Practice in the 13 Colonies"

Bachelor of Arts, History and International Relations, George Washington University, Concentration: China.

Thesis Topic: "Treaty of Tientsin of 1857"

Diploma of French Language and Literature

University of Fribourg, Fribourg, Switzerland

Languages: French, German, Vietnamese

EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Professor, World History (HIS 101 and 102)

Approaches to Peace and Conflict Resolution (IDS 265)

Salem State College, 1996-Present

Adjunct Professor, History (U.S. and World)/U. S. Government/ Interdisciplinary Studies (Women's Spirituality and Approaches To Peace and Conflict Resolution),

North Shore Community College, 1994-Present

Adjunct Instructor, U.S. History/African-American History, 1989-1993

City Colleges of Chicago, Big Bend Community College, European Division

SAT, GRE, GMAT Instructor, 1991-1993

Continuing Education Program, Mannheim, Germany

Other Professional Experience:

- Import Specialist, U.S. Customs Service and U.S. Department of Commerce (1978-1986)
- Tour Guide, Gadsby's Tavern and Decatur House, Washington D.C. National Trust for Historic Preservation, (1983-1986)
- Relief Worker, International Voluntary Services, Viet-Nam (1966-1970)

LEADERSHIP ROLES : Co-Director: Salem State College Peace Institute, 2005-Present

Co-Coordinator: Salem State Earth Day, 2005-Present

. Founder "Citizens for a Livable Beverly"

Member Peace and Justice Studies Association

RESIDENCE: 44 Hillcrest Avenue, Beverly, MA 01915. Phone: (978) 921-4474;

E-MAIL: Bennekh@msn.com

